

Leopold Education Project

Striving for a Land Ethic

Don't miss out on ONE of these two great opportunities!

- Facilitator Training Workshop: June 9 - 11, 2006
- Educator Training Workshop: June 10, 2006 (See reverse)

The Leopold Education Project (LEP) is an innovative, interdisciplinary conservation education curriculum based on the classic writings of Aldo Leopold, a renowned conservationist. The LEP helps students recognize their ties to the natural world – and their role in the conservation and protection of natural resources. Activities emphasize careful observation, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills. Both classroom lessons and outdoor activities are included. The ultimate goal of the LEP is to instill a love, respect, and admiration for the land, leading to environmentally responsible citizenship.

Facilitator Training Workshop – June 9-11, 2006

Time: 5:30 p.m. Friday to 12:00 noon, Sunday

Place: Prairie Wetlands Learning Center, Fergus Falls, Minnesota (Lodging provided in dorm.)

Cost: A Real Deal! $40 registration includes food, lodging, and $100 worth of materials.

Sponsors: Pheasants Forever, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, The Science Center at Maltby Nature Preserve

Materials: Each participant will receive...Lessons in a Land Ethic Teacher's Guide, A Sand County Almanac by Aldo Leopold, "Prophet for All Seasons" video, Facilitator's Manual, Task cards, Make-and-take supplies...and much more!

Who should attend? Naturalists and curriculum coordinators who lead workshops for teachers of science, language arts, math, art, social studies; non-formal educators; natural resource professionals; 4-H and Scout leaders – anyone interested in learning more about fostering a relationship between youth and the natural world.

*If you are interested, one hour of graduate credit through Hamline University is available for an additional $98 tuition charge .

For more information, contact Sil Pembleton at work 507-664-0770; sil@thesciencecentermnp.org or home: (651) 429-1228; edorsil@earthlink.net Visit the LEP website at www.lep.org.

(Registration form on reverse).

Leopold Education Project

Striving for a Land Ethic

Educator Training Workshop, June 10, 2006

- Time: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Place: Prairie Wetlands Learning Center, Fergus Falls, Minnesota
Cost: $20 (includes lunch & materials – a Real Deal! Actual cost of materials is $50.)
Sponsors: Pheasants Forever, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, The Science Center at Maltby Nature Preserve
Materials: Participants receive Lessons in a Land Ethic Teacher's Guide, A Sand County Almanac by Aldo Leopold, Task Cards and much more!

Who should attend? Teachers of science, language arts, math, social studies, art; non-formal educators, natural resource professionals, 4-H and Scout leaders – anyone interested in fostering a relationship between youth and the natural world.

For more information, contact: Sil Pembleton (507)664-0770 or email sil@thesciencecentermnp.org or Laura Bonneau, Prairie Wetlands Learning Center, (218) 736-0938 x13 or Laura_Bonneau@fws.gov. Visit the PWLC website at <http://midwest.fws.gov/pwlc> to learn more about the PWLC facilities.

REGISTRATION FORM

To register, fill out this form and return. Registration deadline June 3, 2006.

I am registering for:

- ☐ Facilitator Workshop on June 9-11, 2006 -- $40 check enclosed.
☐ Educator Workshop on June 10, 2006 -- $20.00 check enclosed.

Name _____

Street Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Make check payable and mail to: Leopold Education Project, The Science Center at Maltby Nature Preserve, 789 Sciota Trail East, Randolph, MN 55065